FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 04/27/2005

On April 26, 2005, Adam Clymer, Political Director of the National Annenberg Election Survey, Annenberg Public Policy Center of the University of Pennsylvania, 529 F Street, Suite 320, Washington, DC, telephone number (202) 549-7161, was interviewed at his place of employment. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview, Clymer provided the following information:

Adam Clymer stated that his Date of Birth is April 27, 1937, and his place of birth is New York, New York. His Social Security Account Number is 133-28-3611, and his home address is 2022 Columbia Road, NW, Apt. 302, Washington, DC, 20009.

Clymer is a member of the Board of Directors of the Washington Press Club Foundation (WPCF) and has been a member since the early 1990s when he was the chief Washington correspondent for The New York Times in Washington DC. He was the WPCF's Vice-president from 1999 to 2000, President from 2000 to 2001, Vice-President from 2001 to 2002 and again President from 2002 to 2003. Clymer stated that the WPCF was a non profit organization and the Foundation put on a dinner each year to help raise funds for scholarships. He has served on the WPCF committee organizing their annual fund-raising dinner and was of great assistance to the Foundation due to his numerous contacts with member of Congress gained through his work with The New York Times. Members of Congress would be guest speakers at the dinner.

In 2000, Clymer created the WPCF's book donation program whereby published authors in the DC area were asked to donate their books to DC public schools. Clymer stated that the WPCF receives about twenty donated books per year.

When Clymer first became a Board member, the WPCF had just under six figures in its bank account and the WPCF's finances weren't much to worry about at the time. Since then, the WPCF has received a legacy of a little more than $100,000 from an old member and has been bequeathed a piece of property in Florida, from another member, that is currently valued at approximately $1 million.
